

MAY 11 1961

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75

FOIAb3b

The Federal Diary

Labor Plans Bigger
Staff to Enforce New Minimum Wage Act

By Jerry Kluttz

J. Patrick Coyne has impressed three Presidents by his objective work in a most sensitive position, the mark of an able public servant. President Kennedy has reappointed him as executive secretary of the Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board. He was first appointed to a similar post by President Truman and he was retained by President Eisenhower. He's a former FBI official.

CPYRGHT